

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Consultancy to review the SINPF Investment Policy Documents

The Solomon Islands National Provident Fund (SINPF) was established by the Solomon Islands Government under the National Provident Fund Act 1973 commencing its full operations on the 1st day of October 1976 as a mandatory superannuation saving scheme, focusing primarily on formal employees. In 2003, NPF was deemed a financial institution under the Financial Institutions Act (FIA) and subject to prudential reviews by the Central Bank of Solomon Islands (CBSI), as all other licensed financial institutions in the country.

Considering the "unique & current conditions" faced by the Fund. A review and update of the Fund's existing Investment Policy documents to ensure they remain relevant, robust, and aligned with current best practices is required.

The overall objective of this engagement is to review and update the 2017 Investment Policy Documents namely, (i) Investment Policy Statement (IPS), (ii) Investment Risk Management Regime, (iii) Investment Guideline (IG) and (iv) Strategic Asset Allocation Guideline (SAA).
